(ii) An employee (other than a casual employee) who works so much overtime between the termination of their ordinary work on one day and the commencement of their ordinary work on the next day that the employee does not have at least ten consecutive hours off duty between those times shall, subject to this paragraph, be released after completion of such overtime until the employee has had ten consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

(iii) If, on the instruction of the employer, such an employee resumes or continues work without having had such ten consecutive hours off duty the employee shall be paid at double rates until they are released from duty for such period and shall then be entitled to be absent until the employee has had ten consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

(iv) Where an employee (other than a casual employee) is called in to work on a Sunday or holiday prescribed under this award preceding an ordinary working day, they shall, wherever reasonably practicable, be given ten consecutive hours off duty before the usual starting time on the next day. If this is not practicable then the provisions of subparagraphs (ii) and (iii) of this subclause shall apply.

(v) The provisions of this paragraph shall apply in the case of shift employees who rotate from one shift to another, as if 8 hours were substituted for 10 hours when overtime is worked;

(iii) If an employee to whom subparagraph (i) of paragraph (e) of subclause (2) hereof applies has, as a consequence of the notice referred to in that paragraph, provided themselves with a meal or meals and is not required to work overtime or is required to work less overtime than the period notified, they shall be paid for each meal provided and not required, $10.00.

(ii) The union party to this award, or employee or employees covered by this award, shall not in any way, whether directly or indirectly, be a party to or concerned in any ban, limitation, or restriction upon the working of overtime in accordance with the requirements of this subclause.

3 The provisions of this Clause do not operate so as to require payment of more than double time rates, or double time and a half on a holiday prescribed under this award, for any work except and to the extent that the provisions of Clause 18. - Special Rates and Provisions of this award apply to that work.

13. - SHIFT WORK

13A. - OTHER THAN CONSTRUCTION WORK
(1) An employer may work any job on shifts but before doing so shall give notice of their intention to the Union concerned and of the intended starting and finishing times of ordinary working hours of the respective shifts.

(2) Where any particular process is carried out on shifts other than day shift, and less than five consecutive afternoon or five consecutive night shifts are worked on that process, then employees employed on such afternoon or night shifts shall be paid at overtime rates.

Provided that where the ordinary hours of work normally worked in an establishment are worked on less than five days then the provisions of paragraph (a) shall be as if four consecutive shifts were substituted for five consecutive shifts.

(b) The sequence of work shall not be deemed to be broken under the preceding paragraph by reason of the fact that work on the process is not carried out on a Saturday or Sunday or any other day that the employer observes a shut down for the purpose of allowing a 38 hour week or on any holiday.

(3) Where a shift commences at or after 11.00 p.m. on any day, the whole of that shift shall be deemed, for the purposes of this award, to have been worked on the following day.

(2) Where any particular process is carried out on shifts other than day shift, and less than five consecutive afternoon or five consecutive night shifts are worked on that process, then employees employed on such afternoon or night shifts shall be paid at overtime rates.

Provided that where the ordinary hours of work normally worked in an establishment are worked on less than five days then the provisions of paragraph (a) shall be as if four consecutive shifts were substituted for five consecutive shifts.

(b) The sequence of work shall not be deemed to be broken under the preceding paragraph, by reason of the fact that work on the process is not carried out on a Saturday or Sunday, or on any other day that the employer observes a shut down for the purpose of allowing a 38 hour week or on any holiday.
(3) Where shift work is worked on construction work or by the contractor on commissioning tests for new plant -

(b) The ordinary hours on each shift shall include crib time not exceeding twenty minutes which shall be taken in relays so as not to cause a stoppage of operations and at times convenient to the employer.

(4) A shift employee engaged on construction work or on commissioning tests for new plant shall, in addition to their ordinary rate, be paid per shift of eight hours, a loading of 25 per cent for night shift.

(5) Where shifts are worked on construction work or on commissioning tests for new plant the day and night shifts shall change weekly.

14. - PAYMENT OF WAGES

(a) Each employee shall be paid, where the employer and employee agree, weekly or fortnightly, prior to the finishing time of work at the appropriate rate as shown in the First Schedule - Wages. Subject to subclause (2) of this Clause payment shall be pro rata where less than a full week is worked.

(b)

(i) The employee shall be paid in cash or, where an employer and employee agree, the employee may be paid their wages by cheque or electronic funds transfer.

(ii) Where an employee is paid in cash, the employee shall be paid during ordinary working hours prior to finishing time.

Unless an employee has been notified that payment will be delayed for reasons beyond the reasonable control of the employer, an employee kept waiting for their wages shall be paid at overtime rates up to the maximum of one hour.

(2) From the date that a 38 hour week system is implemented by an employer wages shall be paid as follows:

(a) Actual 38 Ordinary Hours

In the case of an employee whose ordinary hours of work are arranged in accordance with placitum (i) or (ii) of subclause (2)(a) of Clause 11. - Hours so that the employee works 38 ordinary hours each week, wages shall be paid weekly or fortnightly according to the actual ordinary hours worked each week or fortnight.

(b) Average of 38 Ordinary Hours

Subject to subclauses (3) and (4) hereof, in the case of an employee whose ordinary hours of work are arranged in accordance with placitum (iii) or (iv) of subclause (2)(a) of Clause 11. - Hours so that the employee works an average of 38 ordinary hours each week during a particular work cycle, wages shall be paid weekly or fortnightly according to a weekly average of ordinary hours worked even though more or less than 38 ordinary hours may be worked in any particular week of the work cycle.

Special Note - Explanation of Averaging System

As provided in paragraph (b) of this subclause an employee whose ordinary hours may be more or less than 38 in any particular week of a work cycle, is to be paid their wages on the basis of an average of 38 ordinary hours so as to avoid fluctuating wage payments each week. An explanation of the averaging system of paying wages is set out below:

(i) Clause 11. - Hours in subclause (2)(a) plactita (iii) and (iv) provides that in implementing a 38 hour week the ordinary hours of an employee may be arranged so that they are entitled to a day off, on a fixed day or rostered day basis, during each work cycle. It is in these circumstances that the averaging system would apply.

(ii) If the 38 hour week is to be implemented so as to give an employee a day off in each work cycle this would be achieved if, during a work cycle of 28 consecutive days (that is, over four consecutive weeks) the employee's ordinary hours were arranged on the basis that for three of the four weeks the employee worked 40 ordinary hours each week and in the fourth week the employee worked 32 ordinary hours. That is, the employee would work for eight ordinary hours each day, Monday to Friday inclusive for three weeks and eight ordinary hours on four days only in the fourth week - a total of nineteen days during the work cycle.

(iii) In such a case the averaging system applies and the weekly wage rates for ordinary hours of work applicable to the employee shall be the average weekly wage rates set out for the employee's classification in the First Schedule - Wages of this award, and shall be paid each week even though more or less than 38 ordinary hours are worked that week.

In effect, under the averaging system, the employee accrues a "credit" each day the employee works actual ordinary hours in excess of the daily average which would otherwise be seven hours 36 minutes. This "credit" is carried forward so that in the week of the cycle that the employee works on only four days, their actual pay would be for an average of 38 ordinary hours even though, that week, the employee works a total of 32 ordinary hours.

Consequently, for each day an employee works eight ordinary hours the employee accrues a "credit" of 24 minutes (0.4 hours). The maximum "credit" the employee may accrue under this system is 0.4 hours on nineteen days; that is, a total of seven hours and 36 minutes.

(iv) As provided in subclause (3) of this Clause, an employee will not accrue a "credit" for each day they are absent from duty other than on annual leave, long service leave, holidays prescribed under this award, paid sick leave, workers' compensation or bereavement leave or trade union training leave.

(3) Absences from Duty

(a) An employee whose ordinary hours are arranged in accordance with placitum (iii) or (iv) of subclause (2)(a) of Clause 11. - Hours and who is paid wages in accordance with paragraph (a) of subclause (2) hereof and is absent from duty (other than on annual leave, long service leave, public holidays prescribed under this award, paid sick leave, workers' compensation or bereavement leave or trade union training leave) shall, for each day the employee is so absent, lose average pay for that day calculated by dividing their average weekly wage rate by five.
An employee who is so absent from duty for part of a day shall lose average pay for each hour they are absent by dividing their average daily pay rate by eight.

(b) Provided when such an employee is absent from duty for a whole day they will not accrue a "credit" because the employee would not have worked ordinary hours that day in excess of seven hours 36 minutes for which they would otherwise have been paid. Consequently, during the week of the work cycle the employee is to work less than 38 ordinary hours they will not be entitled to average pay for that week. In that week, the average pay will be reduced by the amount of the "credit" the employee does not accrue for each whole day during the work cycle they are absent.

The amount by which an employee's average weekly pay will be reduced when they are absent from duty (other than on annual leave, long service leave, public holidays prescribed under this award, paid sick leave, workers' compensation or bereavement leave or trade union training leave) is to be calculated as follows:

Total of "credits" not accrued during cycle x average weekly pay ÷ 38

EXAMPLES

(An employee's ordinary hours are arranged so that they work eight ordinary hours on five days of each week for three weeks and eight ordinary hours on four days of the fourth week).

(5) Day Off Coinciding with Pay Day

In the event that an employee, by virtue of the arrangement of their ordinary working hours, is to take a day off duty on a day which coincides with pay day, such employee shall be paid no later than the working day immediately following pay day. Provided that, where the employer is able to make suitable arrangements, wages may be paid on the working day preceding pay day.

(6) Termination of Employment

An employee who lawfully leaves their employment or is dismissed for reasons other than misconduct shall be paid all monies due to them at the termination of their service with the employer.

When it is not practical for an employer to pay any monies due at the time of termination to an employee dismissed for misconduct the employer shall within two working days of the termination forward any such monies due by registered post to the employee at their last known address or such other address as may be nominated by the employee.

Provided that in the case of an employee whose ordinary hours are arranged in accordance with placitum (iii) or (iv) of subclause (2)(a) of Clause 11. - Hours and who is paid average pay and who has not taken the day off due to them during the work cycle in which their employment is terminated, the wages due to that employee shall include a total of credits accrued during the work cycle as detailed in the Special Note following paragraph (b) of subclause (2) of this Clause.

Provided further, where the employee has taken a day off during the work cycle in which their employment is terminated, the wages due to that employee shall be reduced by the total of credits which have not accrued during the work cycle.

(2) Where leave has been granted to a worker pursuant to the preceding paragraph before the right thereto has accrued due, and the employment subsequently is terminated, the employer may deduct from whatever remuneration is payable upon the termination of the employment such amount as represents payment for any period for which the worker has been granted long service leave to which he was not at the date of termination of his employment or prior thereto entitled.

(3) Any leave in the nature of long service leave or payment in lieu thereof under a State Law or a long service leave scheme not under the provisions hereof granted to a worker by his employer in respect of any period of service with the employer shall be taken into account whether the same is granted before or after the coming into operation hereof and shall be deemed to have been taken and granted hereunder in the case of leave with pay to the extent of the period of such leave and in the case of payment in lieu thereof to the extent of a period of leave with pay equivalent thereof of the entitlement of the worker hereunder.

(2) The entitlement of any such worker to leave in respect of a period of service with the employer completed after the period in respect of which the long service leave referred to in paragraph (1) of this subclause accrued due shall be in accordance herewith.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subclause the entitlement to leave hereunder shall be in substitution for and satisfaction of any long service leave to which the worker may be entitled in respect of employment of the worker by the employer.

The Special Board of Reference may subject to such conditions as it thinks fit exempt any employer from the provisions hereof in respect of its employees where there is an existing or prospective long service scheme which in its opinion, is, viewed as a whole, more favourable for the whole of the employees of that employer than the provision hereof.

(i) An employee on maternity leave may terminate her employment at any time during the period of leave by notice given in accordance with this award.

(ii) The employer shall not terminate the employment of an employee on the ground of her pregnancy or of her absence on maternity leave, but otherwise the rights of the employer in relation to termination of employment are not hereby affected.

(i) acceptance in principle that any new award skill level definitions developed will be more suitable for the needs of the industry, more broadly based, and more truly reflective of the different skill levels of the tasks now performed, but which shall incorporate the ability for an employee to perform a wider range of duties where appropriate;

(ii) the parties will seek to create a genuine career path for employees which allows advancement based on accreditation and access to training.

(3) The commitments referred to in this clause are supported by the Memorandum of Agreement (Exhibit 2, Matter No. 1568 of 1989, 19 December 1989) and the Statement of Position (Exhibit 1, Matter No. 563 of 1990, 10 July 1990), which underpin the award variations arising out of these matters and are to be read in conjunction with these variations.
