4. - SCOPE

This Award applies to teachers (as defined) employed in the classifications mentioned in Clause 14. - Salaries of this Award, but it does not apply to a person who is in Holy Orders or who is a member of a religious teaching order unless it is so stated in a written contract of employment between that person and the school in which he/she is engaged in teaching duties.

(8) “Continuous Service” shall include full-time, part-time and temporary service, paid leave and unpaid leave of less than two (2) consecutive weeks, with the same employer.

6. - CONTRACT OF SERVICE

(1) (a) A teacher shall, upon engagement, be given a letter of appointment in which the general conditions and the special conditions (if any) of his/her appointment are stated. A copy of that letter shall be retained by the school and signed by the teacher within one week of commencing work. This subclause shall not apply to a relief teacher.

(b) The conditions stated in the letter of appointment shall, while the employment continues, be observed by the parties and shall not be subject to any alteration of significance without the consent of the teacher.

(c) Paragraph (a) of this subclause does not authorise the inclusion in a letter of appointment of any provision which is inconsistent with or contrary to any provision of this Award.

(2) Except in the case of relief or temporary teachers, the termination of the service of a teacher shall require a minimum of six weeks' notice by either party to take effect from the close of school business at the end of school term. Failure to give the required notice shall make that party liable to forfeiture of or payment to the other party of an amount equivalent to six weeks' pay or an amount equivalent to that period of notice not given or served.

Provided that the requirements of this subclause may be waived in part or whole by mutual agreement between the teacher and the employer.

(3) The contract of service of a temporary teacher shall be terminable at any time by either party giving not less than one (1) week's notice, save that in the case of continuous service exceeding one (1) year, notice shall be as prescribed in subclause (2) of this clause.

(4) The engagement of a relief teacher shall be by the day or half day and where the period exceeds five consecutive days the notice shall be one day. Where the employment is for five consecutive days or less the engagement shall be considered to be a specific period and notice shall not be required.

(5) A part-time teacher shall receive payment for sick leave, long service leave and vacation leave on a pro-rata basis in the proportion that his/her hours of work bear to the hours of a full-time teacher.

(6) Upon termination a statement of service and a separate reference when requested by the teacher shall be provided to the teacher by the employer.

(7) Nothing within this clause detracts from the employer's right to dismiss summarily any teacher for serious misconduct in which case salary shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only.

7. – SPECIAL LEAVE

(1) A teacher shall, on sufficient cause being shown, be granted special leave with pay.

(2) “Sufficient cause” is defined as a matter or situation for which:

(a) no other paid leave is available,

(b) no other arrangements can reasonably be made,

(c) the absence from duty is required due to pressing necessity.

(3) The period determined at the discretion of the employer having regard to all the circumstances would not normally exceed three (3) days in any one instance.

(4) Such discretion is not to be harshly or unfairly exercised.

8. – SICK LEAVE

(1) (a) A teacher who is unable to attend or remain at the place of employment during the normal hours of duty by reason of personal ill health or injury shall be entitled to payment during such absence in accordance with the following provisions.
Entitlement to payment shall be twelve and one half day’s pay for each completed year of service. Such leave will accrue on a weekly basis. A teacher who was actually engaged for all four terms in a calendar year shall be entitled to a year’s entitlement.

A teacher who claims an entitlement under this clause shall provide to the employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of the entitlement.

If in the first of successive years of service with the employer, a teacher is absent on the ground of personal ill health or injury for a period longer than his/her entitlement to paid sick leave, payment may be adjusted at the end of that year of service, or at the time the teacher's services terminate, if before the end of that year of service, to the extent that the teacher has become entitled to further paid sick leave during that year of service.

A temporary teacher shall retain the benefit of accumulated sick leave on appointment as a permanent teacher provided that the service is continuous. For the purpose of this paragraph school vacations shall not be deemed to break the continuity of service.

The unused portions of the entitlement to paid sick leave in any one year shall accumulate from year to year and subject to this subclause may be claimed by the teacher if the absence by reason of personal ill health or injury exceeds the period for which entitlement has accrued during that year at the time of the absence. Provided that a teacher shall not be entitled to claim payment for any period exceeding thirteen weeks in any one year of service.

A teacher on paid leave shall accrue an entitlement to payment under this clause.

The provisions of this subclause with respect to payment do not apply to teachers who are entitled to payment under the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 1981 nor to teachers whose injury or illness is the result of the teacher's own misconduct.

9. – LEAVE WITHOUT PAY

A teacher applying for leave under this clause must state the period of such leave and the reason for which the leave is being sought.

Leave without pay does not involve loss of continuity of service for salary, sick leave and long service leave purposes. Any period exceeding two weeks during which the teacher is absent on leave without pay shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of service for any purposes of this Award. In the case of leave without pay, which exceeds eight weeks in a continuous period, the entire period of that leave is exercised in full.

If a teacher is granted leave without pay the question of the teacher's specific duties on return to work should be considered before the granting of such leave and any arrangements made documented. If no prior arrangement is made a teacher upon return to service shall be entitled to a position commensurate with the position held immediately prior to the commencement of such leave.

The maximum period for which leave is granted under this clause shall be one year.

10. - HOLIDAY AND VACATION LEAVE

Except as hereinafter provided, a teacher shall be allowed the holidays granted by the school in which he/she is employed, including term and Christmas vacations, without deduction of pay.

If after one week’s continuous service in any calendar year a teacher lawfully terminates his/her employment or his/her employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the teacher, the teacher shall be granted salary instead of vacation leave proportionate to his/her length of service. Provided that a teacher who was actually engaged for all four terms in that calendar year shall be entitled to be paid for the whole of the vacation period of that year.

(a) Where a teacher has been paid for leave, which at the time of termination has not been fully accrued, the employer may deduct from any monies owed that portion to which the teacher is not entitled.

(b) Where the employment of a teacher is terminated by the employer prior to the attainment of the accrued vacation leave, then the provisions of this subclause shall not apply.

(4) A teacher on approved paid leave, shall accrue an entitlement to payment under this clause.

(5) A teacher who is justifiably dismissed for serious misconduct shall not be entitled to the benefits of the provisions of this clause.

(a) A leave loading equivalent to 17.5 per cent of four weeks' salary shall be paid to a teacher, including a part-time and temporary teacher, who has completed twelve months' continuous service with the employer or who has been employed for all four terms in a calendar year.

(b) The loading shall be paid in the final pay in December of that year.

(c) If the service of a teacher commences after the beginning of first term in a calendar year then, by agreement between the employer and the teacher, the leave loading may be paid, proportionate to the length of service in that year, in December of that year.

11. - LONG SERVICE LEAVE

(1) Subject to subclause (3):

(a) A teacher who has completed ten (10) years' continuous service with an employer shall be entitled to 13 weeks' paid long service leave.

(b) For each subsequent period of ten (10) years' service a teacher shall be entitled to an additional 13 weeks' paid long service leave.

(c) On termination of the teacher’s employment in any circumstances otherwise than for serious misconduct the teacher shall be entitled to payment of long service leave in respect of the number of years’ service with the employer completed since the teacher last became entitled to an amount of long service leave of a proportionate amount on the basis of 13 weeks’ for ten (10) years’ service.

(2) In calculating a teacher's entitlement under this clause continuous service with the employer prior to the 1st day of January 1984 shall be taken into account in the following manner:

(a) In the case of a teacher who has already accrued an entitlement to long service leave with the employer prior to the 1st day of January 1984, the teacher shall continue to accrue subsequent entitlements to long service leave in accordance with the provisions of subclause (1) of this clause.

(b) In the case of a teacher who, at the 1st day of January 1984, had not accrued an entitlement to long service leave, the teacher's entitlement shall be calculated on the following basis:

For any period of continuous employment prior to the 1st day of January, 1984, an amount calculated on the basis of 13 weeks' paid long service leave for each 15 years of continuous service.

(3) The expression "continuous service" does not include:
(a) Any period exceeding two weeks during which the teacher is absent on leave without pay. In the case of leave without pay which exceeds eight weeks in a continuous period, the entire period of that leave is exercised in full;

(b) any service of a teacher who resigns or is dismissed, other than service prior to such resignation or prior to the date of any offence in respect of which he/she is dismissed by the employer, when that prior service has actually entitled the person to long service leave under this clause.

(4) Subject to subclause (6) of this clause, term and Christmas holidays observed by the school shall be recognised as extra leave and not included in the long service leave.

(5) Any public holiday which occurs during the period a teacher is on long service leave shall be treated as part of the long service leave and extra days shall not be granted.

(6) Where a teacher has become entitled to a period of long service leave in accordance with this clause, the teacher shall commence such leave as soon as possible after the accrual date in a manner mutually agreed between the employer and the teacher by one of the following options:

(a) as a semester, with approved leave without pay for that portion which exceeds the long service leave period;

(b) as a term, with any excess entitlement being taken with future long service leave or paid out on termination, resignation or retirement. The excess cannot be used to reduce a future accrual period;

(c) as a term, with the excess entitlement falling during the Christmas vacation period being paid for in addition to the ordinary payment for such vacation. The excess leave may be taken during the vacation period prior to or following the term's long service leave.

(7) Payment for long service leave shall be made in full before the teacher goes on leave or by agreement between the teacher and the employer, at the same time as the teacher's salary would have been paid if the teacher had remained at work in which case the payment shall be made by arrangement between the teacher and the employer.

(8) Where a teacher has completed at least 7 years' service but less than 10 years' service and employment is terminated -

(a) by the teacher's death; or

(b) in any circumstances, otherwise than serious misconduct;

the amount of leave shall be such proportion of 13 weeks' leave as the number of completed years of such service bears to 10 years.

(9) In the case to which subclause (8) of this clause, applies and in any case in which the employment of the teacher who has become entitled to leave hereunder is terminated before such leave is taken or fully taken the employer shall, upon termination of employment otherwise than by death, pay to the teacher and upon termination of employment by death, pay to the personal representative of the teacher upon request by the personal representative, a sum equivalent to the amount which would have been payable in respect of the period of leave to which he/she is entitled or deemed to have been entitled and which would have been taken but for such termination. Such payment shall be deemed to have satisfied the obligation of the employer in respect of leave hereunder.

(10) Where the continuous service of a teacher during the accrual period contains any period where the teacher worked on a part time basis the teacher’s entitlement shall be calculated as follows:

(a) the number of weeks accrued shall be in accordance with subclause (1) above; and payment for the leave taken shall be the average that the teacher’s part time service bears to that of a full time teacher over the accrual period.

12. — CARER’S LEAVE

(1) Use of Sick Leave

(a) A teacher with responsibilities in relation to either members of his/her immediate family or members of his/her household who need care and support shall be entitled to use, in accordance with this subclause, any sick leave entitlement for absences to provide care and support for such persons when they are ill. Such leave shall not exceed five (5) days in any calendar year and is not cumulative.

If it is not practicable for the teacher to give prior notice of absence, the teacher shall notify the employer by telephone of such absence at the first opportunity on the day of absence.

(2) Use of Unpaid Leave

(c) a teacher is not entitled to take parental leave at the same time as the teacher’s spouse but this subclause does not apply to one week’s parental leave:

(i) taken by the male parent immediately after the birth of the child; or

(ii) taken by the teacher and the teacher’s spouse immediately after a child has been placed with them with a view to their adoption of the child.

(d) a teacher shall not be in breach of this order as a consequence of failure to give the stipulated period of notice in accordance with this subclause, if such failure is occasioned by the confinement occurring earlier than the presumed date.

(3) Parental Leave to start 6 weeks before the birth

Subject to subclauses (4), (5) and (7) of this clause, the period of parental leave for a female teacher shall be for an unbroken period of up to 52 weeks and shall include up to six weeks’ leave to be taken immediately before the presumed date of confinement, unless in respect of any period closer to the expected date of birth a medical practitioner has certified that the teacher is fit to work.

(4) Transfer to a Safe Job

Where in the opinion of a duly qualified medical practitioner, illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the teacher make it inadvisable for the teacher to continue at her present work, the teacher shall, if the employer deems it practicable, be transferred to a safe job at the rate and on the conditions attached to that job until the commencement of parental leave. If the transfer to a safe job is not practicable, the teacher may, or the employer may require the teacher to, take leave for such period as is certified necessary by a duly qualified medical practitioner. Such leave shall be treated as parental leave for the purposes of subclauses (8), (9), (10) and (11) of this clause.

(c) A teacher's right to resume work within the period specified in paragraph (b) of this subclause shall be subject to the practicality of enabling the teacher to resume within that period, but in any case that limitation shall not be invoked to extend the period of leave beyond the date originally agreed to.

Where the teacher’s resumption is delayed, he or she may undertake temporary employment with another employer without affecting his or her contract of service with the school from which he or she took parental leave.

(7) Special Parental Leave and Sick Leave

(a) Where the pregnancy of a teacher or a teacher’s spouse not then on parental leave terminates after twenty-eight weeks other than by the birth of a living child then:

For the purposes of subclauses (9), (10) and (11) of this clause, parental leave shall include special parental leave.

A teacher returning to work after the completion of a period of leave taken pursuant to this subclause shall be entitled to the position which the teacher held immediately before proceeding on such leave or, in the case of a teacher who was transferred to a safe job pursuant to subclause (4) of this clause, to the position the teacher held immediately before such transfer.

Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available, for which the teacher is qualified and the duties of which the teacher is capable of performing, the teacher shall be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and salary or wage to that of the teacher’s former position.

(8) Parental Leave and Other Leave Entitlements

(a) A teacher may take, in conjunction with or in addition to parental leave, any annual leave or long service leave or any part thereof to which the teacher is then entitled.

(b) Paid sick leave or other paid authorised award absences (excluding annual leave or long service leave), shall not be available to a teacher during the teacher’s absence on parental leave.

(9) Effect of Parental Leave on Employment

Notwithstanding any award, or other provision to the contrary, absence on parental leave shall not break the continuity of service of a teacher but shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of service for any purpose of the Award.

(10) Termination of Employment

(a) A teacher on parental leave may terminate his or her employment at any time during the period of leave by notice given in accordance with this Award.

(b) An employer shall not terminate the employment of a teacher on the ground of the teacher’s pregnancy or of the teacher’s absence on parental leave, but otherwise the rights of an employer in relation to termination of employment are not hereby affected.

(b) The teacher will notify the employer in writing not less than six (6) weeks prior to the presumed dated of return, when the teacher requests to return to work under different arrangements from those which the teacher held immediately prior to the commencement of Parental leave.

(12) Replacement Teachers

(a) A replacement teacher is a teacher specifically engaged as a result of a teacher proceeding on parental leave.
(b) Before an employer engages a replacement teacher under this subclause, the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the teacher who is being replaced.

(c) Before an employer engages a person to replace an teacher temporarily promoted or transferred in order to replace an teacher exercising his or her rights under this clause, the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion or transfer and of the rights of the teacher who is being replaced.

(d) Nothing in this subclause shall be construed as requiring the employer to engage a replacement teacher.

(e) A replacement teacher shall not be entitled to any of the rights conferred by this clause except where his/her employment continues beyond the twelve months’ qualifying period.
