5.1 No employee aged 21 or more shall be paid less than the minimum adult award wage unless otherwise provided by this clause.

5.2 The minimum adult award wage for full-time employees aged 21 or more is $607.10 per week payable on and from the commencement of the first pay period on or after 1 July 2011.

5.3 The minimum adult award wage is deemed to include all State Wage order adjustments from State Wage Case Decisions.

5.4 Unless otherwise provided in this clause adults employed as casuals, part-time employees or piece workers or employees who are remunerated wholly on the basis of payment by result shall not be paid less than pro rata the minimum adult award wage according to the hours worked.
5.5 Employees under the age of 21 shall be paid no less than the wage determined by applying the percentage prescribed in the junior rates provision in this award to the minimum adult award wage.

5.6 The minimum adult award wage shall not apply to apprentices, employees engaged on traineeships or Jobskill placements or employed under the Commonwealth Government Supported Wage System or to other categories of employees who by prescription are paid less than the minimum award rate, provided that no employee shall be paid less than any applicable minimum rate of pay prescribed by the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act 1993.

The rates of pay in this award include the minimum weekly wage for employees aged 21 or more payable under the 2011 State Wage order decision. Any increase arising from the insertion of the minimum wage will be offset against any equivalent amount in rates of pay received by employees whose wages and conditions of employment are regulated by this award which are above the wage rates prescribed in the award. Such above award payments include wages payable pursuant to enterprise agreements, consent awards or award variations to give effect to enterprise agreements and over award arrangements. Absorption which is contrary to the terms of an agreement is not required.

9.2 If the matter cannot be resolved it may be referred to the Commission for conciliation and, if necessary, arbitration.

9.3 While the parties attempt to resolve the matter, work will continue as normal unless an employee has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health and safety.

PART 4 – EMPLOYMENT ARRANGEMENTS

10.2 Categories

An employee may be engaged on a part-time, casual basis or full-time basis.

10.3 Full-time employment

An employee engaged on an average of 38 hours per week will be regarded as full time.
10.4 Casual employment

10.4.1 A casual employee means an employee specifically engaged for work on a casual basis.

10.4.2 An employee specifically engaged on a casual basis will be engaged for a minimum period of two consecutive hours for each period of engagement.

10.4.3 A casual employee will be informed in writing upon engagement that:

(1) he/she is hired by the hour;

(2) subject to 10.4.2, he/she will be paid for actual time worked;

10.4.4 A casual employee will be paid the hourly rate as defined plus a loading of 20% for ordinary working hours.

10.5 Caring responsibilities

10.5.1 Subject to the evidentiary and notice requirements in clauses 25.5 and 25.6 casual employees are entitled to not be available to attend work, or to leave work if they need to care for members of their immediate family or household who are sick and require care and support, or who require care due to an unexpected emergency, or the birth of a child or upon the death in Australia of an immediate family or household member.

10.6 Part-time employment

10.6.1 A part-time employee means an employee other than a casual employee who is engaged to work for less than an average of 38 ordinary hours per week.

10.6.2 A part-time employee will work hours and days in accordance with Clause 20. – Hours.

10.6.4 A part-time employee will be entitled to overtime or penalty payments at the prescribed rates in respect of work performed outside of the span of ordinary hours or in excess of their normal daily or weekly hours of work. Provided that the normal working hours of work of a part-time employee may be changed by genuine mutual agreement between the employee and the employer.

10.7 Limited or fixed term employment

Nothing in this award will prevent an employer from engaging a full-time or part-time employee for a fixed or limited period of employment as agreed between the parties.
11. - NOTICE OF TERMINATION

11.1 Notice of termination by employer

11.1.1 In order to terminate the employment of an employee the employer must give to the employee the period of notice specified in the table below:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Period of continuous service</th>
<th>Period of notice</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1 year or less</td>
<td>1 week</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Over 1 year and up to the completion of 3 years</td>
<td>2 weeks</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Over 3 years and up to the completion of 5 years</td>
<td>3 weeks</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Over 5 years of completed service</td>
<td>4 weeks</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

11.1.2 In addition to the notice in 11.1.1, employees over 45 years of age at the time of the giving of the notice, with not less than two years continuous service, are entitled to an additional week's notice.

11.1.3 Payment in lieu of the prescribed notice in 11.1.1 and 11.1.2 must be made if the appropriate notice period is not required to be worked. Provided that employment may be terminated by the employee working part of the required period of notice and by the employer making payment for the remainder of the period of notice.

11.1.4 The required amount of payment in lieu of notice must equal or exceed the total of all amounts that, if the employee's employment had continued until the end of the required period of notice, the employer would have become liable to pay to the employee because of the employment continuing during that period. That total must be calculated on the basis of:

1. the employee's ordinary hours of work (even if not standard hours); and
2. the amounts ordinarily payable to the employee in respect of those hours, including (for example) allowances, loading and penalties; and
3. any other amounts payable under the employee's contract of employment.

11.1.5 The period of notice in this clause does not apply:

1. in the case of dismissal for serious misconduct;
2. to apprentices;
3. to employees engaged for a specific period of time or for a specific task or tasks;
4. to trainees whose employment under a traineeship agreement or an approved traineeship is for a specified period or is, for any other reason, limited to the duration of the agreement; or
5. to casual employees.

11.1.6 Continuous service is defined in Clause 13. – Calculation of Continuous Service.

11.2 Notice of termination by an employee

11.2.1 The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as that required of an employer, save and except that there is no requirement on the employee to give additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned.

11.2.2 If an employee fails to give the notice specified in 11.1.1 the employer has the right to withhold monies due to the employee to a maximum amount equal to the amount the employee would have received under 11.1.4.
11.3 Job search entitlement

Where an employer has given notice of termination to an employee, the employee shall be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off shall be taken at times that are convenient to the employee after consultation with the employer.

11.4 Transmission of business

Where a business is transmitted from one employer to another, as set out in clause 12.7, the period of continuous service that the employee had with the transmittor, or any prior transmittor, is deemed to be service with the transmitee and taken into account when calculating notice of termination. However, an employee shall not be entitled to notice of termination or payment in lieu of notice for any period of continuous service in respect of which notice has already been given or paid for.

12. - REDUNDANCY

12.1 Definitions

12.1.1 Business includes trade, process, business or occupation and includes part of any such business.

12.1.2 Redundancy occurs where an employer has made a definite decision that the employer no longer wishes the job the employee has been doing done by anyone and that decision leads to the termination of employment of the employee, except where this is due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour.

12.1.3 Small employer means an employer which employs fewer than 15 employees.

12.1.4 Transmission includes transfer, conveyance, assignment or succession whether by agreement or by operation of law and transmitted has a corresponding meaning.

12.2 Transfer to lower paid duties

Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties by reason of redundancy the same period of notice must be given as the employee would have been entitled to if the employment had been terminated and the employer may at the employer's option, make payment in lieu thereof of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary rate of pay and the new ordinary time rate for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

12.3 Severance pay

12.3.1 Severance pay

An employee, other than an employee of a small employer as defined in 12.1.3, whose employment is terminated by reason of redundancy is entitled to the following amount of severance pay in respect of a period of continuous service:
<table>

An employee of a small employer as defined in 12.1.3 whose employment is terminated by reason of redundancy is entitled to the following amount of severance pay in respect of a period of continuous service:

<table>

<td>8 weeks’ pay</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

*Week’s pay is defined in 12.1.5

12.3.3 Continuity of service shall be calculated in the manner prescribed by clause 13.1.

12.3.4 Provided that the severance payments shall not exceed the amount which the employee would have earned if employment with the employer had proceeded to the employee’s normal retirement date.

12.3.5 Application may be made for variation of the severance pay provided for in this clause in a particular redundancy situation in accordance with the Western Australian Industrial Relations Commission’s Termination, Change and Redundancy General Order [2005 WAIRC 01715].

12.4 Employee leaving during notice period
An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate his/her employment during the period of notice set out in Clause 11. - Notice of Termination. In this circumstance the employee will be entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under this clause had he/she remained with the employer until the expiry of the notice, but will not be entitled to payment in lieu of notice.

12.5 Alternative employment

12.5.1 An employer, in a particular redundancy case, may make application to the Commission to have the general severance pay prescription varied if the employer obtains acceptable alternative employment for an employee.

12.5.2 This provision does not apply in circumstances involving transmission of business as set out in clause 11.4.

12.6 Job search entitlement
12.6.1 During the period of notice of termination given by the employer in accordance with clause 11.1, an employee shall be allowed up to one day’s time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.

12.6.2 If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee shall, at the request of the employer, be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or he or she shall not receive payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration will be sufficient.

12.6.3 The job search entitlements under this subclause apply in lieu of the provisions of clause 11.3.

12.7 Transmission of business

12.7.1 The provisions of this clause are not applicable where a business is before or after the date of this award, transmitted from an employer (in this subclause called the transmittor) to another employer (in this subclause called the transmitee), in any of the following circumstances:

(a) in which the terms and conditions are substantially similar and no less favourable, considered on an overall basis, than the terms and conditions applicable to the employee at the time of ceasing employment with the transmittor; and

(b) which recognises the period of continuous service which the employee had with the transmittor and any prior transmittor to be continuous service of the employee with the transmitee.

12.7.2 The Commission may vary 12.7.1(2) if it is satisfied that this provision would operate unfairly in a particular case.

12.8.1 This clause does not apply to:

(1) employees terminated as a consequence of serious misconduct that justifies dismissal without notice;

(2) probationary employees;

(3) apprentices;

(4) trainees;

(5) employees engaged for a specific period of time or for a specified task or tasks; or

(6) casual employees.

12.9 Incapacity to pay

The Commission may vary the severance pay prescription on the basis of an employer's incapacity to pay. An application for such variation may be made by an employer or a group of employers.

12.10 Redundancy disputes
12.10.1 Paragraphs 12.10.2 and 12.10.3 impose additional obligations on an employer where an employer contemplates termination of employment due to redundancy and a dispute arises (a redundancy dispute). These additional obligations do not apply to employers who employ fewer than 15 employees.

12.10.2 Where a redundancy dispute arises, and if it has not already done so, an employer must provide affected employees and the relevant union or unions (if requested by any affected employee) in good time, with relevant information including:

(1) the reasons for any proposed redundancy;
(2) the number and categories of workers likely to be affected; and
(3) the period over which any proposed redundancies are intended to be carried out.

12.10.3 Where a redundancy dispute arises and discussions occur in accordance with this clause the employer will, as early as possible, consult on measures taken to avert or to minimise any proposed redundancies and measures to mitigate the adverse affects of any proposed redundancies on the employees concerned.

PART 5 – CLASSIFICATIONS, WAGES, ALLOWANCES AND SUPERANNUATION

13. - CALCULATION OF CONTINUOUS SERVICE

13.1 For the purpose of calculating entitlements under this award, service with one particular employer will be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding:

13.1.2 The end of a funding period for the project.

13.1.3 Unpaid absences, provided that unpaid absences will not be counted as time worked except that, where unpaid absences total less than one week in any year of employment, such absences will be counted as time worked.

13.2 Where a service is before or after the date of this award, transmitted from an employer (in this subclause called the transmittor) to another employer (in this subclause called the transmittee) and an employee who at the time of such transmission was an employee of the transmittor in that service becomes an employee of the transmittee:

13.2.1 the continuity of employment of the employee will be deemed not to have been broken by reason of such transmission; and

27.2.5 The rights of an employer in relation to engagement and re-engagement of casual employees are not affected, other than in accordance with this clause.

27.3 Variation of Parental leave

Where an employee takes leave under clause 27.2.1 or 27.4.1(2), unless otherwise agreed between the employer and employee, an employee may apply to their employer to change the period of parental leave on one occasion. Any such change is to be notified as soon as possible but no less than four weeks prior to the commencement of the changed arrangements. Nothing in this clause detracts from the basic entitlement in clause 27.2.1 or 27.4.1(2).

27.4 Right to Request

27.4.1 An employee entitled to parental leave pursuant to the provisions of 27.2 may request the employer to allow the employee:

(1) to extend the period of simultaneous unpaid parental leave provided for in 27.2.2(1) and 27.2.2(2) up to a maximum of eight weeks;

(2) to extend the period of unpaid parental leave provided for in 27.2.1 by a further continuous period of leave not exceeding 12 months;

(3) to return from a period of parental leave on a part-time basis until the child reaches school age;

and to assist the employee in reconciling work and parental responsibilities.

27.4.2 The employer shall consider the request having regard to the employee’s circumstances and, provided the request is genuinely based on the employee’s parental responsibilities, may only refuse the request on reasonable grounds related to the effect on the workplace or the employer’s business. Such grounds might include cost, lack of adequate replacement staff, loss of efficiency and the impact on customer service.

27.4.3 Employees request and the employer’s decision to be in writing

The employee’s request and the employer’s decision made under 27.4.1(2) and 27.4.1(3) must be recorded in writing.

27.4.4 Request to return to work part-time

Where an employee wishes to make a request under 27.4.1(3), such a request must be made as soon as possible but no less than seven weeks prior to the date upon which the employee is due to return to work from parental leave.

27.5 Maternity leave

27.5.1 An employee must provide notice to the employer in advance of the expected date of commencement of parental leave. The notice requirements are:

(1) of the expected date of birth (included in a certificate from a registered medical practitioner stating that the employee is pregnant) - at least ten weeks;
(2) of the date on which the employee proposes to commence maternity leave and the period of leave to be taken - at least four weeks.

27.5.2 When the employee gives notice under 27.5.1(1) the employee must also provide a statutory declaration stating particulars of any period of paternity leave sought or taken by her spouse and that for the period of maternity leave she will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with her contract of employment.

27.5.3 An employee will not be in breach of this clause if the failure to give the required notice period is because of the birth occurring earlier than the presumed date.

27.5.4 Subject to 27.2.1 and unless agreed otherwise between the employer and employee, an employee may commence parental leave at any time within six weeks immediately prior to the expected date of the birth.

27.5.5 Where an employee continues to work within the six week period immediately prior to the expected date of birth, or where the employee elects to return to work within six weeks after the birth of the child, an employer may require the employee to provide a medical certificate stating that she is fit to work on her normal duties.

27.5.6 Recommenacement date

Where leave is granted under 27.5.4, during the period of leave an employee may return to work at any time, as agreed between the employer and the employee provided that time does not exceed four weeks from the recommencement date desired by the employee.

27.6 Special maternity leave

27.6.1 Where the pregnancy of an employee terminates after 28 weeks and the employee has not commenced maternity leave, the employee may take unpaid special maternity leave of such period as a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary.

27.6.2 Where an employee is suffering from an illness not related to the direct consequences of the birth an employee may be entitled to paid sick leave in lieu of, or in addition to, special maternity leave.

27.6.3 Where an employee not then on maternity leave suffers illness related to her pregnancy, she may take any paid sick leave to which she is then entitled and such further unpaid special maternity leave as a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary before her return to work. The aggregate of paid sick leave, special maternity leave and parental leave, including parental leave taken by a spouse, may not exceed 52 weeks.

27.7 Paternity leave

27.7.1 An employee will provide the employer at least ten weeks prior to each proposed period of paternity leave, with:

(1) a certificate from a registered medical practitioner which names his spouse, states that she is pregnant and the expected date of birth, or states the date on which the birth took place; and

(2) written notification of the dates on which he proposes to start and finish the period of paternity leave; and

(3) except in relation to leave taken simultaneously with the child’s mother under 27.2.2(1), 27.2.2(2) and 27.4.1(1), a statutory declaration stating:

(a) he will take that period of paternity leave to become the primary care-giver of a child;
particulars of any period of maternity leave sought or taken by his spouse; and

(c) that for the period of paternity leave he will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with his contract of employment.

27.7.2 The employee will not be in breach of 27.7.1 if the failure to give the required period of notice is because of the birth occurring earlier than expected, the death of the mother of the child, or other compelling circumstances.

27.8 Adoption leave

27.8.1 The employee will notify the employer at least ten weeks in advance of the date of commencement of adoption leave and the period of leave to be taken. An employee may commence adoption leave prior to providing such notice, where through circumstances beyond the control of the employee, the adoption of a child takes place earlier.

27.8.2 Before commencing adoption leave, an employee will provide the employer with a statutory declaration stating:

(1) the employee is seeking adoption leave to become the primary care-giver of the child;

(2) particulars of any period of adoption leave sought or taken by the employee's spouse; and

(3) that for the period of adoption leave the employee will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with their contract of employment.

27.8.3 An employer may require an employee to provide confirmation from the appropriate government authority of the placement.

27.8.4 Where the placement of a child for adoption with an employee does not proceed or continue, the employee will notify the employer immediately and the employer will nominate a time not exceeding four weeks from receipt of notification for the employee's return to work.

27.8.5 An employee will not be in breach of this clause as a consequence of failure to give the stipulated periods of notice if such failure results from a requirement of an adoption agency to accept earlier or later placement of a child, the death of a spouse, or other compelling circumstances.

27.8.6 An employee seeking to adopt a child is entitled to unpaid leave for the purpose of attending any compulsory interviews or examinations as are necessary as part of the adoption procedure. The employee and the employer should agree on the length of the unpaid leave. Where agreement cannot be reached, the employee is entitled to take up to two days unpaid leave. Where paid leave is available to the employee, the employer may require the employee to take such leave instead.

27.9 Parental leave and other entitlements

An employee may in lieu of or in conjunction with parental leave, access any annual leave or long service leave entitlements which they have accrued subject to the total amount of leave not exceeding 52 weeks or a longer period as agreed under 27.4.

27.10 Transfer to a safe job

27.10.1 Where an employee is pregnant and, in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner, illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the employee make it inadvisable for the employee to continue at her present work, the employee will, if the employer deems it practicable, be transferred to a safe job at the rate and on the conditions attaching to that job until the commencement of maternity leave.
27.10.2 If the transfer to a safe job is not practicable, the employee may elect, or the employer may require the employee, to commence parental leave.

27.11 Returning to work after a period of parental leave

27.11.1 An employee will notify of his/her intention to return to work after a period of parental leave at least four weeks prior to the expiration of the leave.

27.11.2 An employee will be entitled to the position which he or she held immediately before proceeding on parental leave. In the case of an employee transferred to a safe job pursuant to 27.10 the employee will be entitled to return to the position held immediately before such transfer.

27.11.3 Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, the employee will be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of his/her former position.

27.12 Replacement employees

27.12.1 A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged, part-time or full-time, or temporarily promoted or transferred, as a result of an employee proceeding on parental leave.

27.12.2 Before an employer engages a replacement employee the employer will inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.

27.13 Communication During Parental Leave

27.13.1 Where an employee is on parental leave and a definite decision has been made to introduce significant change at the workplace, the employer shall take reasonable steps to:

(1) make information available in relation to any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the employee held before commencing parental leave; and

(2) provide an opportunity for the employee to discuss any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the employee held before commencing parental leave.

27.13.2 The employee shall take reasonable steps to inform the employer about any significant matter that will affect the employee’s decision regarding the duration of parental leave to be taken, whether the employee intends to return to work and whether the employee intends to request to return to work on a part-time basis.

27.13.3 The employee shall also notify the employer of changes of address or other contact details which might affect the employer’s capacity to comply with 27.13.1.

29.2 Notification of jury service

An employee will notify his/her employer as soon as possible of the date upon which he/she is required to attend for jury service.

29.3 Proof of attendance at jury service
